COMSTOCK RESOURCES, INC. ANNOUNCES PRICING OF $965 MILLION OFFERING OF NEW SENIOR NOTES DUE 2030

FRISCO, TEXAS, June 14, 2021 -- Comstock Resources, Inc. (NYSE:CRK) ("Comstock" or the "Company") announced today the pricing of its private placement of new 5.875% senior unsecured notes due 2030 in the aggregate amount of $965 million, which was increased from the originally proposed $500 million offering (the "Notes"). The notes were sold at par. The offering is expected to close on June 28, 2021, subject to customary closing conditions.

The aggregate net proceeds from the sale of the Notes are expected to be approximately $949.5 million, after deducting the initial purchasers' discounts and other offering expenses. The Company intends to use such proceeds to redeem the Company's 9.75% senior notes due 2026 (the "2026 Notes"), including the payment of all premiums, accrued interest and related fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith.

The Notes offered have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or any state securities laws and unless so registered, the securities may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The senior unsecured notes are expected to be eligible for trading by qualified institutional buyers under Rule 144A and non-U.S. persons under Regulation S.

This press release does not constitute a notice of redemption for the 2026 Notes. This press release is being issued pursuant to Rule 135c under the Securities Act., and is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy the Notes or any other securities and shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy, or a sale of, the Notes or any other securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale is unlawful.
